

Small Business Accountancy Firm of the Year

HfM Tax & Accounts

United Kingdom

HfM are a small, experienced and efficient firm with long-serving staff offering a personal service in all areas of tax and accounting. They specialise in residence and domicile tax issues as well as setting up and managing cloud accounting systems for businesses.

Their primary service is dealing with tax affairs and bookkeeping for clients including production of annual accounts and tax returns. Increasingly, they are involved in helping clients to grow their business and make them more profitable through the creation and implementation of better systems, better reporting and strategic advice.

Their clients range from sole traders and small limited companies up to multi-partner professional service firms and partnerships involved in a huge variety of industries and services. HfM are dedicated to building long-term relationships with each client by continually providing access to senior tax advisors for friendly support and advice as well as always being on hand to assist them when needed.

HfM provide a complete yet simple and straightforward approach that removes the pain of dealing with tax. They help and support clients in their business and personal tax affairs without the confusing language you hear from many firms – and all at a reasonable price, agreed in advance. HfM offer fixed-price services so that clients are clear about fees before the work begins.

The Corporate LiveWire judging panel commend HfM for providing a cost-effective way for clients to achieve growth and improve profitability. In particular, they noted the important work

www.hfntax.co.uk
+44 (0) 20 7917 9506

The Corporate LiveWire judging panel commend HfM for providing a cost-effective way for clients to achieve growth and improve profitability.

HfM have achieved in completely modernising the way many businesses operate by providing cloud access to accounting records which in turn helps clients to run their business more efficiently.

In addition, the judging panel were impressed with the expertise of the team which not only pertains to their tax and accounting skills but also their in-depth knowledge and understanding of the complexities relating to each individual client. This personal approach taken by HfM enables them to work with clients to implement a tailored service that provides exactly what they need, when they need it, without complication.